Moderately fat animals are the most profitable. Every excessively fat animal has been fed at a loss during the latter part of its feeding. When an animal is ready for the market, sell it; if there is feed left, buy some more lean animals and feed them. The "nimble sixpence" brings the profit.

Farmers should have a diversity of crops, so that if there is a failure in one there may be a bit in another. The intelligent farmer lays his plans as much as the leader of military forces. He looks ahead to see what will make him money; and he don't put all his eggs under one hen, for she might leave the nest and all would be addled.

The Agricultural Department of the United States, in its last annual report, urgently recommends a variety of crops, which is clearly the true policy. Our late immense harvest happened to coincide with the failure of European crops, but those who base their operations on a recurrence of such exceptional circumstances will incur the risk of bitter disappointment.

It is generally supposed that the roots of grasses do not penetrate very deep, but these roots have been traced as far down into the soil as four feet. Persons plowing for seeding think that just loosening the surface is sufficient, but if deep plowing is necessary for any kind of crops it is for grass, unless the soil has been deeply worked for other crops.

The dairy business in California is largely in the hands of the Swiss. They generally settle together, and form small colonies, helping one another, so that in a few years each has a small piece of land and several cows. They reverse the usual order—instead of requiring from four to seven acres to keep a cow, keep from four to seven cows on an acre. They practice "soiling almost exclusively.

A farmer living near Nassagaweya, Ont., recently killed two perfectly healthy cows. In the stomach of one he found forty-three nails, a screw, a pin and a button. In the stomach of the other were found fifty-three nails, parts of the knives of a feed-cutter and four buckles.

A gentleman sent his black servant to purchase a fresh fish. Approaching a stall, and taking up a fish, he began to smell it. "Hollon! you black rascal, what are you smelling that fish for?"

"I didn't smell de fish, boss, I jes' talked a little to him."

"Well, what did you say to him?"

"I jes' asked him what was de news from de sea."

"And what does he say to you?"

"He say he dunno; he no been dere dese tree weeks."

One fruitful source of colic in horses is cracked corn. If corn is to be fed use whole corn; it is much more likely to be perfectly masticated than cracked corn; and its imperfect mastication causes the colic. It is also unwise to feed grain to a hungry horse, for then a large portion is very apt to be swallowed without being properly masticated. This can be seen in their voidings. Always let the edge of a horse's hunger be taken off with a feed of hay before feeding grain. Half an hour extra spent in feeding, when on the road, will bring you home half an hour earlier at night.

It is now time that the farmer should turn his attention to his young stock and to such cows as are dry and expected to come in in a month or six weeks. Young heifers, especially, should have good English hay. The best of hay will make the best of manure, while poor hay, hog hay, will not only make poor manure but poor animals. Thrown under the cows for bedding such poor material will keep them warm and will absorb the urine, and if turned under the soil will make a decent fertilizer and mechanically improve the condition of the land, in this way becoming equally as valuable as if it had been used in half starving the stock.

Photography in black and white has been carried as near perfection as human effort can be expected to reach, but the recent successful experiments of Mr. Gros in France warrant us in the belief that a process of photographing objects in their natural colors will soon be added to the wonders of the age. It is dazzling and bewildering even to dream of only one of the possible applications of such a discovery—the reproductions of the works of the great masters. Think of being able to purchase for a couple of dollars a colored fac-simile of Raphael's Transfiguration or Madonna della Segdia. The fullest of such a discovery would be to kill bad art, but not to destroy art itself. No mechanical process can supplant that which is based on brain and soul. What is the most faithful photographic portrait ever executed to a head by Gilbert Stuart, recording not only the features but the character of the sitter, as Vandyke did sometimes, and Titian always.

The farmer should study the laws of concentration. He should learn how to concentrate his crops into the best paying articles. Does he consider that butter, cheese, beef, pork, and mutton represent only a certain amount of grass, hay, and grain that his farm produces? That instead of selling the raw commodities, he can by putting them into those articles get much better returns for his products? His study should be how to transform the raw products of his farm into something that is concentrated and that will bring him most money. What he raises has got to go to some market. By condensing it, little freight will have to be paid, and this much will be saved. A farm is not only a farm; it is, or should be, a factory for changing the raw products into articles of general consumption that have a commercial value the world over—that are of the best quality, that keep well, and sell well, and bring prices that will pay well for the skill, labor, and capital employed in producing them.

OXFORDSHIRE DOWN SHEEP.

Now that sheep husbandry is attracting renewed attention among the farmers of our State, it is desirable that some of the strong points of the best mutton producing breeds of England be presented to their consideration and investigation.

The Agricultural Gazette of London, states: The Oxfordshire Downs were, for some years, classed among cross-bred sheep; but at a meeting of breeders in 1857 it was determined to give them a definite name. Hence their new title, the propriety of which is demurred to by some, for their only similarity to a Down is in their color. Their size and fleece—important qualities which have been long and carefully cultivated by the promoters of this breed—partake more of the Lougwool. The Oxfordshire Downs were originally produced by crossing a Hampshire, and, in some instance, a Southdown ewe—most commonly the former, for it gave increased size with a Cotswold ram, and then putting the crosses together. By constant attention and weeding a most successful result has been accomplished, producing a kind of sheep that possess, with uniformity of character and hardiness of constitution, large frames, good fleeces, aptitude to fatten, and mutton of superior quality. It is about twenty-seven years since this breed was first established in Oxfordshire.

An English authority in these matters writing of the Oxfordshire Downs and referring to store sheep, and of breeding rams and ewes of these flocks as kept in every day use, gives the following brief statement of points:

"1. The dead weight of an average lot of lambs at 3 months would be from 32 to 40 pounds; at 5 months, from 48 to 56 pounds; at 7 months, 64 to 72 pounds; at 12 months, from 80 to 96 pounds.

"2. The weight of ewes at 18 to 24 months, from 90 to 104 pounds; of wethers, from 88 to 112 pounds; of rams, from 150 to 200 pounds.

"3. The weight of aged (full-mouthed) ewes, from 80 to 100 pounds; of 2 and 3-shear rams, in working order, from 160 to 200 pounds.

"4. Oxfordshire Down wethers are generally sold to the butcher, shorn, at from 12 to 15 months old, weighing from 80 to 112 pounds, some even weighing more—the average probably about 88 pounds.

"5. The ewes produce their first lambs at 24 months old; some few breeders put them to the ram as tags, namely at 9 or 10 months old. The Oxfordshire Downs are very prolific and excellent mothers.

"6. The mutton is very superior, and commands a high price in the London markets; there is a good deal of lean meat as compared with the fat; and it compares favorably with the mutton of any other breed of sheep.

"7. The weight of fleece of 12 months' growth of ewes is from 7 to 8 pounds; of rams, at 15 to 18 months old, from 10 to 12 pounds; of wethers, at 13 to 18 months old, from 8 to 14 pounds."

Mr. Hillman, of Portland, estimates the value of his stock destroyed by the fire Tuesday night, at $4,800, covered by the insurance reported.

The Portland Press says: We hear it reported that a fight occurred between the teacher and scholars of a school located near Duck Pond, but the teacher got the best of it.

The Portland Argus says: The other day as Mr. Asa Dyer, of Little Chebeague Island, was off Crow Island, his eye caught sight of a shark just in front of his boat. Springing to his feet, he seized a long boat hook and struck at the huge fish. The hook sunk into the shark's eye so deeply that the action of the sea was held fast, and Asa, by rope, it in tow to Little Chebeague Island, where with the aid of Sailor Osgood it was dragged ashore and killed. The shark measured thirteen feet and four inches.

Portland officers arrested Rufus Dorhan and Hamilton of Lewiston, Wednesday afternoon, on suspicion of having stolen goods in their possession as they were offering to sell several pairs of new boots at a trifling price. The city marshal of Lewiston was telegraphed and he sent back word for the fellows to be held till an officer could be sent to take them back to that city.

A. F. Burnham, Esq., of Ellsworth, has been circulating an anti-tobacco pledge to which he has secured about thirty signatures.

The fire at the Insane Asylum the other night caught in the brick wards, and not in the brick yard as reported.

The Augusta Journal says: The many friends of Mr. Jefferson Higgins of this city, will be pleased to learn that he has recently been appointed Superintendent of three large cotton mills at Shirtsville, R. I. We congratulate the company in securing the services of a gentleman of so large experience and sterling qualities. Mr. Higgins is now on a brief visit to friends here.

The Gardiner Journal says: Fred A. Berry has been kind enough to give us an estimate of men and horses now employed on the river between Hallowell and Thawing Point; and he makes 2285 men and 500 horses. Probably like any roll of the ten companies on the Kennebec now is well up to 50,000 per day. This helps out things in this community a good deal.

Piscataquis.

Mrs. H. E. Brown, of Alton, formerly of Milo, a lady seventy-five years old, recently spun nine skeins of woolen stocking yarn in one day—commencing at 7 o'clock in the morning and getting the business all done up at 6 in the evening. Next!

The Belfast Age says: A surprising quantity of hay has come to market during the past week, and much of it is shipped away. A. C. Shiley shipped last week over 300 tons. Since our last report he has loaded the large schooner Henry Tilton with hay for Charleston, S. C., and schooner Dione with brick and hay for Jacksonville, Fla. Woods, Mathews & Baker have loaded schooner Harmony with hay for Boston.

Oscar Larrabee, of Knox was tried Wednesday of last week before Justice Raymond S. Rich for stabbing his father with intent to kill. It seems that Oscar got angry with his parent Wednesday morning and he struck him over the eye with a boot; he then drew a knife and attempted to stab the old man, but inflicted only a slight wound, for his sister struck his hand down with a club. He was bound over until the next term of the S. J. Court under $300 bonds, in default of which he was brought to jail.

The provision store of Mr. Edwin Bowman, of Belfast, was entered Tuesday night or Wednesday morning of last week and two or three dollars worth of groceries were stolen. The money drawer was not disturbed.

Last Monday morning John B. Pike committed suicide by taking laudanum, in his room at H. H. Prouty's residence at Rockland, Mass. He formerly resided in Belfast, at the Phœnix House, and worked in the shoe factory. About three months ago he went to Rockland, Mass., and was employed there as a cutter in the shoe manufactory of Chipman, Critchett & Lane. Mr. Pike had been in a despondent mood for a week previous to his death. He was about 30 years old.

A WORLD'S FAIR. New York proposes to have a World's Fair in 1883, and to have Congress pay a share of the expense. The time will be appropriate, as that year will be the centennial of the acknowledgment of American Independence by Great Britain. But New York is a big city, with so many men who are willing to have a hand in the management of such an exposition that it is difficult to make choice among them, and already there are two or three lots of would be directors in the field. It is stated that several Governors of States are giving encouragement to the enterprise, and that it is proposed to secure a national recognition and an appropriation from Congress. The approval of several public-spirited Congressmen has already been secured.

BY TELEGRAPH.

FRIDAY'S LEGISLATIVE PROCEEDINGS.

Various Matters of Interest and Importance.

MORE FUSIONISTS TAKE SEATS.

Fusionists Come In.

[SPECIAL TO THE PRESS AND COURIER.]

AUGUSTA, Jan. 30. This morning the Auburn Light Infantry withdrew from duty at the State House, by order of the Governor, and left by rail for home. With the disappearance of the soldiery, the presents of the Fusion members, in their seats in the Legislature, and no signs left of the late rumpus, everything has settled down to a peace footing. The Fusionists have entered upon their legislative duties cheerfully as if nothing had happened, and apparently seem resigned to the situation. There were others who took their seats today in the House among them was Perry of Camden. The four who came in were Gushee of Appleton, Smith of Vinal Haven, Glidden, of St. George, Hill of Rowland, Roundy of Benton, Temple of Eddington, Pendleton of Islesboro, House of Acton, Nash of Addison, Perkins of Malden, Webb of Deer Isle, and Randall of Somerset. Three more Fusion Senators took their seats to-day, viz: Ellis and Lunson of Waldo, and Barrett of Oxford, making ten in all who have come in and leaving Thompson of Knox, and Purlin of Somerset, the only two fusion Senators who did not themselves.

Unlawful Enlistments.

The investigating committee on fusion enrollments and enlistments are developing facts which reveal a dark chapter in the history of the conspiracy, and which fully justify beyond all reasonable doubt, Governor Davis in calling out the soldiery. The aggressive purposes of the warlike wings of the Fusionists are being brought to light, and already testimony enough has been elicited to show that had not Governor Davis taken the step he did, the State House to-day would have been in possession of the conspirators. The committee will endeavor to probe this whole matter to the core, with a view of showing the guilt in various of the conspirators.

Missing State Funds.

It is not unlikely that Gov. Garcelon will be called as the investigation progresses, to explain the disposition of several thousand dollars which he drew from the State Treasury the last part of December, of which no record or vouchers have yet been discovered, and which circumstance is open to grave suspicions. It is currently reported that Gov. Garcelon who was known to be financially embarrassed, has recently paid off all his liabilities. Whether this has anything to do with the State's money, or a part of money from some other source, is perhaps nobody's business, and yet people will be inquisitive, particularly when men are flush and have no means of their own.

Ward Bloomers.

In the Senate to-day when the Bill to amend Section 10, Chapter 4, R. S. relating to the removal of electors from one ward to another, came from the House, Mr. Dingley of Androscoggin, showed that the operations of the present law were unfortunate, and that the proposed amendment was just and proper, as it did not deprive anybody of the right to vote.

Mr. Pappn (fusion) of Penobscot, said that his first impressions were against the bill. He lived in Ward 3 in his own city (Bangor,) and might move to Ward 7, in which case, if he wanted to express himself on any local matter he would be obliged to travel back and forth for the purpose. He opposed the bill.

Mr. Norris, of Washington, favored it. It only requires voters to live sixty days in a ward instead of thirty as the law now stands.

The rules were suspended and the bill was passed to be engrossed.

Petition for Reimbursement.

In the Senate a petition was presented from the executors of Alfred Veazie, praying to be reimbursed for money paid the State for lands in Township E., county of Franklin, to which the State had no title. Referred to the Committee on State Lands.

The Wisconsin Resolutions.

In offering the series of resolutions, which were adopted in the House to-day, returning thanks to the government and the people of Wisconsin for their generous sympathy and encouragement tendered the government and people of Maine, Mr. Strout, of Portland, who submitted them said he offered them not in any spirit of party. The political events which have transpired during the past few months have a wider and deeper significance and a more important influence than any were party or party purpose. Political organizations are formed and dissolved; political associations change, but the essential features of a representative form of government are unchanged and unchangeable. In the heat of our greatest anxiety for the permanence of our institutions and the peaceful solution of the difficulties with which we were surrounded the whole nation stood waiting with anxious solicitude for the result. He offered this in recognition of the kind action of the Wisconsin Legislature. The resolutions are as follows:

Resolved by the House of Representatives, the Senate concurring, that we extend to the Assembly and Senate of the State of Wisconsin, and through them to the people whom they represent, our grateful acknowledgement for their great appreciation of the gravity and importance to ourselves and the people of the whole country of the events, through which we have just passed, as expressed in the resolutions transmitted by the Governor to this Legislature, and for the generous sympathy and encouragement therein tendered to us and to the people of this State.

Resolved, That in return we tender to them and to the country our congratulations that these questions which are so vital to the maintenance of representative government have been peaceably settled by the proper legal tribunal without violence or an appeal to arms, thereby adding another proof of the disposition and capacity of the people of this country to maintain under the law the spirit and purpose of Republican institutions, and to enforce and uphold the essential principle upon which the republic rests, that the will of the people when ascertained shall be respected and obeyed.

Resolved, That the Governor of this State be requested to forward a copy of these resolutions to His Excellency the Governor of Wisconsin, with the request that he will transmit them to the Assembly and Senate of that State.

The Senate Valuation.

Mr. Strout, from the Judiciary Committee, which was directed to inquire into the legality of taking as a basis of State taxation for the ensuing year the valuation of the State as now established, made the following report in the House:

Article IX, Section 7 of the Constitution is as follows: "While the public exigences shall not require it, all polls and estates, a general valuation shall be taken, at least once in ten years."

This is the only provision of the Constitution bearing upon this subject. In construing it, no aid could be gathered from the context from other provisions of the same instrument, nor from the journal of the Convention by which it was framed.

The Constitution of Massachusetts which undoubtedly afforded a guide to the framers of our Constitution contains this provision; that, "there will be a valuation of estates within this Commonwealth taken once in every ten years at least, and as much oftener as the general court shall order." This provision is substantially the same as that found in the Constitution of this State, except that the words "and as much oftener as the general court shall order" are omitted in our Constitution. It is quite likely that clause last named was considered as surplusage.

The committee are of the opinion, that the Constitution requires that an actual valuation, shall be taken the present year and completed before the first day of April next. Yet if under the exigencies of the case a full valuation cannot be taken within that time, the Legislature may take a valuation based upon the present valuation and as much additional information as they can obtain, and that such a valuation established by a resolution properly worded would be held to be a sufficient compliance with the constitutional provision, although it is designed to stand for only one year. Although the Constitution contemplates the taking of a valuation at least once in ten years, there seems to be no reason why it may not be taken as much oftener as the Legislature shall deem advisable, and that if the valuation taken this year should prove insufficient a new valuation might be taken by the Legislature of next year.

Before the report was accepted, and ordered printed, Mr. Hale, of Ellsworth, arose and said that the question submitted to the Judiciary committee was simply to inquire as to the legality of the valuation for, a term or other of the old valuation for a year. "I have no doubt," said Mr. Hale, "that in an emergency, and the question is to be settled by the Legislature, whether an emergency has arisen, it is competent on the part of the Legislature by a resolution, such as the report says, in proper wording to adopt not in form but in figures and in words the old valuation of 1870; and thereby make it a valuation for a year, or for two or three years. I have no doubt but that it would be legal the taking of a valuation for the time. I hope something of some kind or other will be arrived at soon, because if a valuation is to be taken there is no time to be lost. The seats have been filling up rapidly and I hope that all constituencies will soon be represented."

Committee Work, etc.

A bill was presented and referred regulating the salary of the Judge of the Police Court in Rockland by giving him fees.

The Judiciary Committee were directed to inquire into the expediency of abolishing the Calais Municipal Court; what amendment is necessary to chapter 80 of Revised Statutes for the protection of the holders of policies of life insurance.

The Committee on Legal Affairs were directed to inquire what amendments of the Statutes concerning the organization of mining and manufacturing corporations under the general law are expedient.

The Committee on Elections were directed to inquire whether or not the seats of the Representatives from Minot and Kennebunk districts have become vacant by operation of the law, or otherwise; and if vacancies are found to exist to report a resolution declaring the fact and ordering a new election in said districts.

The House ordered that all school local matters concerning the state College be referred to the Committee on Education, and that they inquire as to the present condition of that institution and what changes if any, are expedient or desirable. The House Committee were directed to provide for a uniformity of text books in common schools, and to prevent their too frequent change; expediency of amending Sec. 65, chap. 11 of Revised Statutes, so as to authorize the graduates from the several Normal Schools to teach in any school in the State below the High school, without a certificate from the Superintending School Committee or Supervisor, and not be subject to the penalties mentioned in the section referred to.

Repeal of a Statute.

Perry, (fusion) of Camden, presented an order for the Judiciary Committee to inquire into the necessity of repealing Sec. 25, chap. 2, Rev'sed Statutes providing that no person shall take part in organizing either branch of the Legislature unless his name appears on the certified roll furnished the Clerk or Secretary of that branch. This is the law of 1860 that has been declared unconstitutional by the recent opinion of the Supreme Court. The order was passed.

Warrants Matters.

Bill an act relating to the removal of electors from one ward to another, was read twice in the House and under a suspension of the rules was passed to be engrossed and finally passed. Bill an act relating to persons who falsely assume to be State officers was passed to be engrossed. The bill relating to days of grace upon promissory notes and other commercial paper, pending its passage to be engrossed, was tabled at the instance of Mr. Jewett of Richmond.

A bill was reported to the House by the Judiciary Committee giving a charter to the Ocean-st. Railroad Company, the incorporators of which are John Reed, Chas. Goodridge, John J. Frye, Jason M. Carleton, S. H. Tewksbury, J. Porter Taylor, David Mcalpin and their successors and assigns. The object is to construct a horse railroad from a point of junction with the road running to Morrill's Corner along Ocean street or Back Bay to East Deering, near Portland. The capital stock is not to exceed $5,000 in the first instance, but may be increased by stockholders representing two-thirds of capital stock. Read and assigned for to-morrow.

Mr. Strout of Portland, presented the petition of J. D. Gilman and other managers of the Maine General Hospital, for the annual appropriation of $5,000. Referred to Finance Committee.

Mr. Lord of Bangor, presented the petition of M. S. Drummond and Wm. H. McGrillis, to be incorporated into a company for log driving purposes on the West Branch of Pleasant river in Piscataquis county, which was referred.

The appointment of J. E. Manley, Esq., of this city, as a Trustee of the Insane Hospital is regarded as an excellent one. Mr. Manley is perfectly familiar with the duties imposed on him and has always taken a great interest in the welfare of the institution.

Governor's Message and Other Matters.

Mr. Knott of Kentucky, reported a bill removing the political disabilities of Wm. B. Tallaferro of Virginia.

Mr. Conger, of Michigan, opposed the bill on the ground that the petition referred to the war as the "war between the Southern States and the United States" instead of the "rebellion."

The Speaker thought the petition in the usual form, the chair was always on the side of pensions and of relieving disabilities.

Mr. Conger—"I do not rank pensioners and those who ask amnesty in the same class."

Speaker—The Chair would elect them all to full citizenship and those who have suffered he would have pensioned. The bill passed and the House adjourned.

Peaks, Representatives John L. Cutler, C. V. Reed and Gen. S. Hill. Governor Davis went to his house in Corinth to spend the Sabbath.

Capt. A. A. Larrabee, of Searsport, severely ill with scarlet fever, arose on Thursday night, insane, and with a butcher knife drove his wife out of doors in her night clothes. After the doctor came they got him quieted down. It was thought that he could not live, but he is improving now.

Miss Georgia E. Cayvan. Notice is given elsewhere that this gifted young elocutionist will give one of her ever popular entertainments in Music Hall, on Friday evening of next week. Miss Cayvan has read in this city several times, and by her rare elocutionary power and pleasing manners has established herself as a great favorite with a Bangor audience. The programme which is given in another column is one of great excellence.

Loan Exhibition. On Thursday and Friday evenings of next week the ladies of the Hammond street society will have a loan exhibition and sale of fancy articles and refreshments at City Hall. Those having the matter in charge are devoting much time and care to the collection of articles for the loan exhibition, and this feature of the entertainment will undoubtedly be very interesting. A fan drill will also be performed once or twice during each evening.

Marston, as Marshal: A. B. Farnham, W. M.; W. H. Kirkpatrick, S. W.; J. F. Lewis, J. W.; E. F. Dillingham, Treas.; A. B. Marston, Sec.; Rev. E. W. Preble, Chap.; J. H. Woodman, S. D.; Norris E. Bragg, J. D.; William T. Jordan, S. S.; John Woodman, J. S.

Accident. A man named Wm. Bock, of Enfield, met with a serious accident this week. He was employed in John Treat & Sons's mill, sawing spool stuff, when he received a blow on the right arm, from a piece of wood thrown off by the saw, breaking the bone below the elbow. He was attended by a physician and is now doing well, but the accident will keep him a prisoner for some time. Bock seems to have hard luck this being the second injury he has received by wood thrown from the saw.

Supper and Concert. The ladies of the Crusade gave an antiquarian supper and concert in City Hall last evening. The tables, which were bountifully supplied with good substantial articles of food, were presided over by ladies in costume, and were quite liberally patron ized by our citizens. The concert which followed was of an interesting character, consisting in part of choruses by ladies and gentlemen in costume, under the direction of Mr. W. J. Patten. Solos were also given by Mrs. W. F. Shaw, Miss Merry and Mr. Packard, all of whom called forth enthusiastic applause.

Deceased Judges. At the annual dinner of the Dartmouth Alumni, at the Revere House, Boston, Wednesday night, President Bartlett announced that at the next commencement, eminent legal gentlemen would pronounce brief eulogies upon the following distinguished Judges, who have died within the last few years, all of them graduates of the College: Ether Shipley, Jonas Cutting, George F. Shepley, Joel Parker, Ira Perley, Isaac F. Redfield, Richard Fletcher, Samuel S. Wilde, and Andrew P. Woods. The first three were residents in Maine.

"Bangor Light Infantry." The recent stirring events in our State have revived the military ardor of many of our older citizens, and the suggestion is made that the "Bangor Light Infantry," which was so long a crack company in the State with its red coats and bearskin hats, should be reorganized. We learn that some of our wealthy citizens are ready to join in a movement to provide uniforms for a first class company and we have heard Captain E. E. Small's name mentioned as an excellent commanding officer. It is thought that Bangor should easily keep up two good companies, and that the Light Infantry, in addition to our worthy Jameson Guards, would make a fine local military.

A New Theatre in Portland. Plans have been completed for an entire remodeling of Music Hall, Portland, into a pretty theatre. The entrances will be changed and greatly enlarged. By the new plan the stage has been deepened eight feet and widened three feet, giving a depth of forty feet, a width of fifty-nine feet and a width at the opening for curtain of thirty feet. The seats in the orchestra circle will be similar to those of the Park Theatre, Boston, large, comfortably upholstered arm chairs, and for the balcony folding chairs like those in Portland Theatre. New scenery and handsome dressing will be introduced. The theatre as arranged will seat one thousand comfortably, and accommodate two hundred with standing room.

For the Ladies. In anticipation of a wedding to take place in New York after Easter, a white satin dress is ordered in Paris, which will have the front and side breadths embroidered in designs with pearls imitating royal Venetian point lace in rare devices of interlaced bars and scrolls, and in rose de lis and roses copied from cathedral windows; and the trefoil of silver sconces. Another dress of think, ivory-tinted silk will be laboriously embroidered in front with silk and tiny opal-hued beads in tea roses and foliage. The draperies are made of striped watered green and white gauze, embroidered, all over with fine white glass beads. Some of the bead embroideries imitate costly point d'Alençon, its patterns being taken, as most of the lacework designs are, from the delicate traceries of artists in frost.

Star Grange. A correspondent writes: The following officers of Eastern Star Grange No. 1, of Hampden, were installed Tuesday evening, by P. M. Isaiah C. York, assisted by P. M. A. K. Walker and Deputy E. H. Gregory: Master, O. W. Page; Overseer, Joseph Clements; Lecturer, Mrs. S. Bartlett; Steward, C. H. Patterson; Assistant Steward, Ernest Knowles; Chaplain, L. Clements; Treasurer, Daniel Howell; Secretary, Hillman Smith; C. H., Daniel Patten; Ceres, Sarah N. Page; Pomona, L. Bartlett; Flora, Mary Howell; S. A., Isabel Nealey. After the installation oysters were served in the dining hall, able and vigorous speeches being made by Brothers and Sisters of this Grange, Northern Light Grange and Bro. Gregory of Golden Harvest Grange. Eastern Star, the oldest Grange in the State, was never more united than now, and never more prosperous.

Dine and Stop Long. The Gazette says: "A good appearing fellow recently called at the Shaw House, Newport, stated that he had been at work at Blanchill and was bound for his home on the Kennebec. He gave the name of Jones and said he was out of money. Mr. Sawyer finally told him he might remain for a while if he would do various jobs around the house, and to that he agreed. Sawyer retired and let the stranger lying down in the hotel office. The next morning Sawyer rose and found the outside door ajar and he then discovered that the man was missing and soon found that an overcoat valued at forty dollars had disappeared from the office. Mr. Sawyer took the first train West and went as far as Burnham, after which he returned to Newport and found that the money drawn in the hotel office had been relieved of about five dollars. He then went to Bangor that evening and notified Marshal Reed. It is supposed that the man was a tramp."

The Planet Mars. Last Tuesday night Mars and the moon were in conjunction. The phenomenon possessed much interest as marking one step in the gradual approach that the path of our satellite is making to Mars' place in the heavens, and which will end on March 17, in the conclusion of the fiery planet. It is curious to trace this approach. When Mars and the moon met each other, in December last, they were over three degrees apart. On Tuesday night they were only two and a half degrees apart. On the 17th of next month they will approach within a degree and a half, and on March 17, at their next meeting, Mars will pass behind the moon, and amateur astronomers will have a rare object to try their telescopes. After that, at each recurring conjunction the planet will be further away, and it will be seen that the two have changed places, Mars, which is now south of the moon, passing then to the north of it. Mars is now fast nearing the Pleiades or Seven Stars, and the contrast between the soft, diffused white light of this famous star cluster, and the bold red hue of the planet of war, makes a pretty picture, which will grow more striking night by night, for two or three weeks to come.

Death of a Young Vocalist. The Boston Journal says: "The friends of Miss Clara E. Nichols will be pained to learn that a telegram dated Paris, France, was received this week from her mother announcing her death in that city on the 23d instant. Miss Nichols was the eldest daughter of Capt. David Nichols, and was about 21 years of age, having been born in Searsport on the 28th of April, 1858. She was passionately fond of music, and to that end devoted her life since leaving school. She accompanied Miss Annie Louise Cary to Russia, immediately after the famous Cary concert in this city, in the summer of 1876, where she studied music under celebrated teachers. She went thence to Milan, where she still continued her studies, after which she received an engagement in Carl Rosa's Opera Company, as leading lady, and was to have made her debut in London last February, but was prevented by an affection of the throat from which she has never fully recovered. Miss Nichols was a lady of rare intellectual qualities, and possessed an amount of energy and will that was far in excess of her physical strength. There are no particulars in regard to her death, the despatch simply announcing that fact, and stating that her mother, who was with her at the time, would leave with the remains by steamer on the 31st instant. Her father is now with his ship on the passage from Hamburg to Java."

Insurance Meeting, Announcement. I am now prepared to announce that I am able to cure by the new "Antiseptic Treatment," every form and variety of "Skin Disease," of however long standing, including the most chronic and obstinate cases of Eczema, Acne, Herpes and Lichen, without the slightest injury, but a continued improvement of the general health of the patient. I am induced to make this public announcement from the fact, that the above class of diseases have generally been considered incurable by the medical profession, and, it is only now, from the knowledge afforded by the "germ theory" of disease, that we are enabled to cure any and all of these diseases in a few weeks time. I am confident that the many persons, (especially the young) whose faces are marred and disfigured by Acne, and others suffering with burning, itching Eczema, will cordially thank me for making public the fact, that, at last, a cure has been discovered for "Skin Diseases."

Cases in which the heart is weak and irregular in action, are soon restored to health and regularity by Fellows' Syrup of Hypophosphites. As persons whose heart's action is feeble are most susceptible to the influence of cold, it is in the advent of the cold season its use is especially advised.

Answer This. Did you ever know any person to be ill, without mention of the Stomach, Liver or Kidneys, or did you ever know one who was well when either was obstructed or inactive: and did you ever know or hear of any one of the kind that Hop Bitters would not cure. Ask your neighbor this same question.

Farmer's Club.

The Penobscot Farmer's Club hold their next meeting at the Holden Town House, Wednesday, Feb. 4th, commencing at 10 o'clock A. M. Members are requested to take their baskets with them and deliver them immediately on their arrival to the committee on dinner. The citizens of Holden will furnish the coffee and tea and spread the tables for a picnic dinner. This plan has been adopted by the Club to prevent the unnecessary trouble in case of bad weather or but few attending when a large number is expected. Question for discussion—What is the best course to pursue to make the culture of potatoes more profitable?

OBITUARY.

Deacon William Woodard.

The Lewiston Journal has the following notice of the death of Deacon William Woodard, the venerable father of the late Abram Woodard, of this city. We were pleased to count him as a friend and sincerely mourn the death of a remarkably intelligent and thoroughly patriotic citizen:

Deacon William Woodard, one of the oldest and most esteemed citizens of the county, died at the residence of his son-in-law, Mr. D. M. Carcelon, in this city, at 10 A. M., Wednesday, aged 90 years 3 months and 25 days. Mr. Woodard was born in Lisbon and moved thence to Lewiston in 1834. He was for 62 years a member of the Free Baptist church. Four times the bereavement, which was bronzed, in the early part of the present century. Mr. Woodward has been in comparison good consistent friend. His mind was clear to the last and on Tuesday morning he read the Journal as usual, without difficulty. At 8 o'clock on Tuesday his daughter noticed something unusual about his appearance and going to his side found him speechless. It was a stroke of apoplexy. The deacon lingered more and more slowly and gradually and continued unconscious until at 10 A. M. Wednesday, he passed into the other world for which he had so long been prepared. The Deacon has had eight children, of whom two daughters survive, Mrs. Capt. J. S. Garcelon and Mrs. D. M. Garcelon, with the latter of whom he spent his declining years. Deacon Woodward has two sisters still living, Mrs. Bibber of Lisbon, aged 87 and Mrs. Randall of Lee, aged 81. He has always been in good health, and death came to him painlessly.

A NEW METHOD IN MEDICINE

By this new method every sick person can get a package of the dry vegetable compound, Kidney-Wort, and prepare for themselves six quarts of medicine. It is a specific cure for Kidney Diseases, Liver Complaint, Constipation and Piles, and a grand tonic for Females. d&w jan31

JUST WHAT IS NEEDED FOR FEMALES.

We have been shown specimens of Samuel Wine, prepared by Mr. Alfred Speer, of Passaic, N. J. It is pure without heating qualities, being absolutely free from spirits further than its own formation affords. Great preference is given to it in New York and other hospitals as a tonic, gentle stimulant, diuretic and quieting and especially prescribed for females, old weakly persons, Kidney Complaint and Rheumatism. Mr. Speer has been years experimenting in the production of this Wine, and the newest wine he sells is four years old.—N. Y. Tribune. For people that are old and worn out and need a strengthening Wine, the above is the best that can be had. It is sold by N. S. Harlow, Bangor, Me. 1d&w

THEY WORK TOGETHER.

When your system gets out of tune and you feel generally played out, it is pretty certain that you need a medicine to act on both the Kidneys and Liver, for these important organs work together in freeing the system of its waste, and keeping up the tone. Then take Kidney-Wort, for this is just what it does, for it is both diuretic and cathartic d&w jan31

If you have a Cold take Adamson's Botanic Balsam. A sure cure for Coughs, sore Throat and all pulmonary complaints. To the afflicted we recommend a trial of this superior remedy.—Boston Saturday Evening Express.

THE BANGOR DAILY WHIG AND COURIER

For 1880

Commences with its forty seventh volume with the new year, with all the facilities fully equipped for publishing the best news paper in Maine. THE MORNING DAILY PAPERS OF NEW ENGLAND The Whig and Courier received the Associated Press dispatches in full and exclusive for the City of Bangor, and is able to furnish to its readers the latest telegraphic news from all parts of the world. It has also a large and efficient corps of correspondents in every important town in Maine, and makes a specialty of Maine news. In Politics it is Republican in principle, but not bitterly partisan. The proceedings of Congress will be fully reported, and the Whig and Courier will continue to advocate the principles which have distinguished it in the past. The Whig and Courier has always taken a deep interest in the welfare of the Democratic party, and will continue to do so. It will publish a full report of the proceedings of the Democratic National Convention, and will support the nominees of that body. Those who desire a first-class Democratic paper will find it to their interest to subscribe for the Whig and Courier.

The Whig and Courier will continue to advocate the claims of the Democratic party in the campaign of 1880, which promises to be the most exciting, and perhaps the most important in the history of the country, and no pains will be spared to make it the best paper for the Democracy of the Union. It will enter the campaign fully equipped for the work before it, and will spare no labor or expense to make it the leading Democratic paper of the country.
